The large collection of Jack Lithgo is currently being catalogued gradually and will be added to this section after completion. This is likely to take some considerable time to complete. The parts already done are stored on the Archive computer.

The collection of Iain Smart is currently being catalogued. Some other smaller collections are awaiting attention.

B2a (Doug Jack Albion Collection) contains a large number of photographs acquired by the late Doug Jack in preparation for a book on Albion. This book was not completed due to his death. His draft for the text is kept in the Archive library.
